

BLACK INDIGENOUS NON-BINARY WOMEN OF COLOUR

Join the BINBWoC [aka BIN-BEE-WOC] Graduate Student Collective

September 24, 2019
2-4pm

Kaneff Tower 749

We are a graduate student collective that aims to create a university space for Black, Indigenous, non-binary, women of colour scholars to deal with racist and sexist institutional structures.

We want to create opportunities to collaborate, through mutual fields of interest and/or workshops to develop skills that will prepare grad students for present and future work in academia and beyond.

Join us at our first meeting of the academic year. Get to know colleagues in other departments. Share any ideas you may have about where the collective can go.

Snacks and refreshments available!
