

INSTITUTE FOR RESEARCH ON DIGITAL LITERACIES PRESENTS

SNAPSHOTS FROM THE FIELD

across career stages, departments, and disciplines

There are so many of us here at York University who conduct research on digital media, digital technology, digital cultures, and digital literacies, but we are scattered across departments and faculties.

We invite you to come to our third annual 3x3x3 event to connect with colleagues and share a snapshot of your research using the 3x3x3 format: share 3 slides, 3 points, in 3 (to 5) minutes. For example, you can share: past, current and future research, 3 problems or questions raised by your research, or 3 digital platforms you focus on. Come join us!

Friday February 10th, 2023

2:00 PM - 4:00 PM

The event will be both in person and on Zoom
